

Saran Naidandorj
English teacher
Jargalan International School
#15, 29th khoroo, Bayangol district, Ulaanbaatar, Mongolia, 16100
January 6, 2025

It is my great honor to write this letter of recommendation for one of my outstanding pupils, Tugstuguldur Badrakh. I have had the privilege of teaching him for four years since he transferred to Jargalan International School in the 9th grade in September 2021.

My name is Saran Naidandorj, and I have been working in the field of education for 26 years. Since 2019, I have been teaching English at Jargalan International School, where I have had the opportunity to guide and mentor numerous exceptional students, including Tugstuguldur.

Over the past four years, Tugstuguldur has demonstrated a strong passion for learning, particularly excelling in Mathematics, English, Mongolian Language, and the Uigargin script. Throughout his time at Jargalan, he has consistently shown outstanding academic performance, teamwork, and moral integrity.

Tugstuguldur is not only a dedicated student but also an active member of the community. He has participated in several volunteer initiatives, showing a genuine commitment to giving back and supporting others. His involvement in these activities has further strengthened his interpersonal skills and deepened his sense of responsibility and compassion.

Additionally, Tugstuguldur has a natural aptitude for acquiring knowledge and an exceptional ability to perceive and process information. His commitment to improving his English skills is particularly noteworthy. When he first joined Jargalan International School, his English proficiency was at a pre-intermediate level. Despite facing challenges, including earning a "C" in IGCSE English as a Second Language in 10th grade, he remained persistent and resilient. Through dedicated effort, he achieved an impressive 7.5 band score on the IELTS exam in 12th grade.

As one of the top students in the 12th grade, Tugstuguldur was selected to represent our school in the Bayangol District and Ulaanbaatar City English Olympiads for secondary schools. In December 2024, he earned 3rd place in the competition, which qualified him to participate in the State English Language Olympiad scheduled for April 2025.

In addition to his academic achievements, Tugstuguldur is a socially active student who thrives in group settings. He collaborates effectively with peers, demonstrates leadership qualities, and often takes initiative in school and community projects. His critical thinking skills and positive attitude enable him to approach challenges thoughtfully and find effective solutions.

For these reasons, I wholeheartedly recommend Tugstuguldur Badrakh. He possesses the skills, determination, and integrity necessary to excel in higher education and beyond. His academic abilities, social engagement, and volunteerism make him an excellent candidate for a bachelor's degree program.

Sincerely

Saran Naidandorj